(Special to The Times Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTESILLE. VA., Agril 37—The Kentucky University base-sall teath, on its initial trip East, played its first game here to-day was defeated by Virginia-7 to 4.

Despite the chilling winds which came, from the snow-capped Flue Ridge, the contest was a fairly clean one. Both teams put up a good sritile of ball, and the errors made figured little in the run getting. Cole pitched four innings for ingulable eater proved put innings for hard betting to the providing the struck out six men. With the score a tie, Virginia cinched the game in the sixth.

After the bases had been filled, Cracraft counted on a passed ball. Pollard laced out a hot one to centerfield, scoring Adaps; and Rowe. Pollard romped home on Grahan's out. The best Kentucky could do was to add one in the seventh. Follard's safe drive in the fourth between first and second sent Rows and Cole across the home plate.

The freath Dawson, who secured two of the four hits, made by his team, such good for work in the box, did the star fielding, gather
work in the box, did the star fielding, gather ing in two line drives, both of which came near taking him off his feet.

LACROSSE SEASON OPEN

Harvard Defeats, Virginia

Forty Minutes' Play.

(Special to The Times Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTERVILLE, VA., April 17.—The LaCrosso season opened here to-day, the Harvard team defeating the Virginia (welve, 8 to 0, in forty minutes of play, The Grimson anuad started off with a rush, and in the first (fifteen minutes of play had thrown five scals.

to 0. in forty minutes of play had thrown floo goals.
The Virginiae players then took a decided brace and the best Harvard could do in the brace and the best Harvard could do in the remeinder of the first haif was to add, two tritles minutes, the Cambridge team was able to score but once. Adams placing the ball in the nest just before the whistle blew.

At the start of the game, Virginia showed up weak on attack and could do little with their heavy opponents, getting only four changes to try for goal in the first heif. Harvard, on the other heard, got in some admirable work and by read passing kept Ackermann and Smith bury directing throws at the irginia set.

Hawkins, formerly of Baltmore City College, did most of the telling work for Virginia, frequently outwitting his opponent. In the second half, Lyone and changes made some pretty stops of Harvard try so you.
